

Abolitionism

Opponents of slavery ranged from moderates who proposed gradual abolition to radicals who demanded immediate abolition without compensating their owners. The Second Great Awakening led many Christians to view slavery as a sin. This moral view made compromise with defenders of slavery difficult. Use the reading to complete the following chart.

ABOLITIONIST	TITLE OF MAJOR WORK(S)	IDEAS &amp; BELIEFS	RADICAL OR NOT? WHY
ANGELINA GRIMKÉ WELD
WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON
DAVID WALKER
HENRY HIGHLAND GARNET
FREDERICK DOUGLASS			