

DBE Analysis/Planning Worksheet

Step One: Read the prompt. Make note of any key dates, terms, and phrases.

Step Two: Brainstorm information that should or could be included in the essay. Brainstorm a potential thesis statement.

Step Three: Read and analyze the documents. What is the main idea of the document? What do you know about its author? What was the impact of the document on history? Remember when analyzing documents you must be HIPP! Summarize the significance of each document (what can be inferred) in 2-3 sentences below.

Doc A:

Doc B:

Doc C:

Doc D:

Doc E:

Doc F:

Doc G:

Doc H:

Step Four: Develop the thesis. Use the formula.

Step Five: Outline your essay. Remember you must use all or all but one of the documents.

X Paragraph

Documents to use (list by letter):

Outside Information (LIST PROPER NOUNS: people, places, events, laws, vocabulary, etc. that are not mentioned within the documents):

A Paragraph

Documents to use:

Outside Information:

B Paragraph

Documents to use:

Outside Information:

C Paragraph

Documents to use:

Outside Information: